Pope Francis insists that the credibility of the Catholic Church rests in the Gospel to the Marginalized. Fr. Greg Boyle, S.J., will talk about the invitation from Jesus to be courageous in living the gospel at the margins. Drawing on 30 years of working with gang members, Fr. Boyle will focus on joy, hope, and the courage of tenderness.

Fr. Greg Boyle, SJ, is the founder and executive director of Homeboy Industries in Los Angeles. From 1986 to 1992, Fr. Boyle served as pastor of Dolores Mission Church in Los Angeles, located amidst two large public housing projects and the territory of numerous rival gangs. It was there he started what would become Homeboy Industries, a nonprofit organization that has become the largest gang-intervention, rehabilitation, and re-entry program in the world. Homeboy employs and trains former gang members in a range of social enterprises, as well as provides critical services to over 10,000 people who walk through its doors every year seeking a better life. Fr. Boyle is the author of the 2010 New York Times-bestselling book, Tattoos on the Heart: The Power of Boundless Compassion.

All events in this series are free and open to the public. 2 NASW-endorsed CEUs will be available for $10 per event. For more information, please call (801) 581-8455.