

EXPLORING SOCIAL & POLITICAL CULTURE

KUMASI, GHANA

- Learn about the social, political, and economic structure of Ghana.
- Learn about Ghanaian society and culture through volunteer opportunities at local orphanages, schools, social welfare service organizations, and NGOs.
- Learn about field based research and ethics in an international setting.

PHOTO CREDIT: Joanna Bettmann

APPLICATION DEADLINE

NOVEMBER 1, 2015

LEARNING ABROAD

GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT | THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

Union, Room 159

learningabroad@utah.edu

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORK

COURSES: SW 6622 (Graduate)

SW 4900 (Undergraduate)

Class meets during spring semester on campus prior to start of program

CREDITS: 3 Undergraduate OR Graduate

DURATION: 10 Days

DATE RANGE: Spring Break 2016

EXCURSIONS: Kumasi Market, Ashanti Cultural Arts Center, Manhiya Palace, and Cape Coast Castle

FACULTY DIRECTOR

DR. JASON CASTILLO

jason.castillo@socwk.utah.edu

ELIGIBILITY

MINIMUM GPA: 2.5

MINIMUM AGE: 18

PARTICIPANTS: Undergraduate, Graduate, & Non-U of U

ACADEMIC: Open to ALL majors

LEARNING ABROAD 101: ALL students must attend one short information session with Learning Abroad

Additional eligibility requirements may apply

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Program details are subject to change. Please refer to the program web page for dates, costs, & updates:

apply.learningabroad.utah.edu

#utahabroad

801.581.5849 - www.learningabroad.utah.edu

