

Substance Use Disorder Training Course Checklist (For-Credit)

Name _____ UNID _____ Date _____ Advisor Elizabeth.Perez@utah.edu
Degree-seeking? _____ SUDC/ASUDC? _____

It is your responsibility to ensure that your certificate and licensing requirements are met. Your academic advisor is available to help you. Please meet with your advisor once per semester to ensure you are on track.

Substance Use Disorder Counselor (SUDC) track:

Eligibility: Associate's or Bachelor's degree completed or in progress

Prerequisites:

- Human Behavior in the Social Environment or Human Development across the Lifespan
- General Psychology (AP Psychology may be counted, but please meet with advisor for additional information)

Coursework: see below; two semesters

Field Training: 200 hours

Advanced Substance Use Disorder Counselor (ASUDC) track:

Eligibility: Bachelor's degree completed or in progress

Prerequisites:

- Human Behavior in the Social Environment or Human Development across the Lifespan
- General Psychology (AP Psychology may be counted, but please meet with advisor for additional information)

Coursework: see below; three semesters

Field Training: 350 hours

SUDC Track Required Courses:

- SW 3715 Dynamics of Addiction (2 credits, Fall) (Our program will accept this course from SLCC)
- SW 3716 Introduction to Professional Development (2 credits, Fall)
- SW 3731 Counseling Practice I (2 credits, Fall)

- SW 3725 Introduction to Neurochemistry and Psychoactive Substances (2 credits, Spring)
- SW 3732 Counseling Practice II (2 credits, Spring)

- SW 5706 Field Training (2 credits, available Fall, Spring, and Summer)
- SW 5711 Functions and Recovery (1 credit) (Available Fall, Spring, and Summer; required for each semester that a student is working on field hours)

ASUDC Track Required Courses include all of the above SUDC track requirements, plus:

- SW 5723 Advanced Professional Development (2 credits, Summer)
- SW 5733 Counseling Practice III (2 credits, Summer)
- SW 5734 Counseling Practice IV (2 credits, Summer)

Grades: All Substance Use Disorder Training students must earn a C- or better in each of the required courses. This includes any non-credit courses.

Substance Use Disorder Training Course Checklist (Professional Non-Credit)

Name _____ UNID _____ Date _____ Advisor Elizabeth.Perez@utah.edu
Degree-seeking? _____ SUDC/ASUDC? _____

It is your responsibility to ensure that your certificate and licensing requirements are met. Your academic advisor is available to help you. Please meet with your advisor once per semester to ensure you are on track.

Substance Use Disorder Counselor (SUDC) track:

Eligibility: Associate's or Bachelor's degree completed or in progress

Prerequisites:

- Human Behavior in the Social Environment or Human Development across the Lifespan
- General Psychology (AP Psychology may be counted, but please meet with advisor for additional information)

Coursework: see below; two semesters

Field Training: 200 hours

Advanced Substance Use Disorder Counselor (ASUDC) track:

Eligibility: Bachelor's degree completed or in progress

Prerequisites:

- Human Behavior in the Social Environment or Human Development across the Lifespan
- General Psychology (AP Psychology may be counted, but please meet with advisor for additional information)

Coursework: see below; three semesters

Field Training: 350 hours

SUDC Track Required Courses:

- SW 715 Dynamics of Addiction (Fall) (Our program will accept this course from SLCC)
- SW 716 Introduction to Professional Development (Fall)
- SW 731 Counseling Practice I (Fall)

- SW 725 Introduction to Neurochemistry and Psychoactive Substances (Spring)
- SW 732 Counseling Practice II (Spring)

- SW 706 Field Training (Available Fall, Spring, and Summer)
- SW 711 Functions and Recovery (Available Fall, Spring, and Summer; required for each semester that a student is working on field hours)

ASUDC Track Required Courses include all of the above SUDC track requirements, plus:

- SW 723 Advanced Professional Development (Summer)
- SW 733 Counseling Practice III (Summer)
- SW 734 Counseling Practice IV (Summer)

Grades: All Substance Use Disorder Training students must earn a C- or better in each of the required courses. This includes any non-credit courses.