

University of Utah College of Social Work Global Educational Opportunities Scholarship

The CSW Global Educational Opportunities Scholarships are available to University of Utah College of Social Work students wishing to participate in a global educational opportunity for academic credit. Preference is given to students participating in College of Social Work global projects, research and study abroad and to those with demonstrated need (FAFSA assessment). The award amount will range from $300 to $500 (depending on available funding).

Scholarship funds may be applied to group or independent learning abroad, international practica, international independent study or international independent research. Scholarship funds must be used to offset program costs such as program fees and accommodation. Scholarship funds may not be applied to airfare or incidental expenses.

To apply for a College of Social Work scholarship, please submit the following to Pamela Seager, at pamela.seager@socwk.utah.edu , College of Social Work Room 101, 801-581-3571.

1. Current resume.
2. Personal statement that demonstrates how the global educational opportunity you have selected will complement your educational plans and contribute to your professional goals. (Double spaced and not to exceed 500 words)
3. Two letters of reference.

Scholarship Application Deadlines

Fall Scholarship – applications due June 1

Spring Scholarship – applications due November 1

Award Disclaimer

We reserve the right to withhold the CSW Global Educational Opportunities Scholarship if it creates an over-award for a prospective recipient. In most cases, an over-award would result in the scholarship offsetting a student's financial aid debt, rather than offsetting program costs as intended.