

The Humanitarian Center in Salt Lake City

- Opportunities to work with a very diverse population of Refugees and Immigrants from around the world.
- $17 per hour for your entire internship
- Individual and Group therapy opportunities for Interns. Ability to work with individuals who are victims of Trauma, Mental and Behavioral Health struggles and Substance Abuse and Addiction. Vast clinical experiences.
- Vocational Counseling and Developing people to reach their highest educational and vocational goals possible
- Thorough Bio-Psycho-Social Assessment opportunities
- Experienced Clinical Supervision
- Experience working on the Micro, Mezzo and Macro levels of care.
- Community collaboration with multiple state, federal and faith-based partners.
- A safe and calm working environment with fun and caring people
- Possible Job Placement assistance at end of internship from Community and professional contacts and Networking by supervisor

Interns must pass a background check (done by agency at no cost to interns) and be a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in good standing.