Announcement for a Career-Line Faculty Position
As The Director of the Online BSW Program
Start Date: January 1, 2016

The University of Utah, College of Social Work, Bachelor of Social Work program invites applications for one 12-month career-line faculty position (open to all academic ranks) as the Director of the Online BSW Program.

Required Qualifications: Applicants must demonstrate clear evidence of their potential to establish and maintain an online undergraduate social work classes. Additionally, applicants must: (1) have an MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited program, and a doctorate in social work or a related field. (2) Two years post-MSW direct social work practice experience with a clinical license in social work. (3) A record of professional accomplishments in teaching, scholarship, and service that is commensurate with rank. (4) Knowledge and ability to use a variety of online learning platforms and software, with particular experience and knowledge with Canvas. (5) Experience in program development and administration, including leading culturally-competent curriculum development efforts; chairing committees/teams; monitoring student development; designing/refining student-oriented program policies; and managing program budgets.

Preferred Qualifications: Applicants with the following qualifications will be given preference: (1) Two years of online teaching experience and online course development experience. (2) One-five years of online teaching evaluations. (3) Demonstrated leadership in international and cross-cultural curriculum and program development. (4) Leadership in professional organizations, university/college committees, and community service. (5) Demonstrated experience and focus within the BSW Program’s paradigms of community-based action program development and research, as well as outreach to marginalized communities, including aboriginal and native peoples, rural communities, and refugees. (6) Demonstrated strong interpersonal and problem-solving skills, and the ability to work with current BSW faculty. (7) Demonstrated experience in curriculum assessment and program improvement at the BSW level. (8) Demonstrated experience and training in the CSWE accreditation process.

College, University, and Environment: As a major research and teaching university—and the flagship of the Utah System of Higher Education—the University of Utah strives to create an academic environment in which the highest standards of scholarship and professional practice are observed and where responsibilities to students are conscientiously met. The University is located in Salt Lake City, at the base of the Wasatch Mountains. The area has received international recognition for its new light rail system, downtown renewal and library system, increasing diversity, and easy access to world class outdoor recreational opportunities.

The College of Social Work was established in 1937 and is the only public institution in the Intermountain West that offers all three degrees in social work—BSW, MSW, and Ph.D. The Bachelor of Social Work Program is seeking to become recognized as a leader in using distant learning to reach “those on the margins of our societies.”

Application Process: Candidates must apply online at http://utah.peopleadmin.com/postings/40765, submitting: a letter of application detailing their interest and qualifications; a full curriculum vitae; a list of three professional references; and links to samples of online course development. Copies of recent online teaching evaluations are desirable, but not required. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Inquiries regarding the position may be directed to the Faculty Search Committee Co-chairs, Dr. Ruth Gerritsen-McKane, at (801) 585-3162, Ruth.Gerritsen-McKane@socwk.utah.edu and Dr. Brad Lundahl at (801) 581-4570, Brad.Lundahl@socwk.utah.edu

The Bachelor of Social Work Program website is located at http://www.socwk.utah.edu/bsw/index.html

The University of Utah is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and educator and its policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, national origin, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, religion, age, status as a person with a disability, genetic information, or veteran’s status. Minorities, women, veterans, and those with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. Veterans preference is extended to qualified veterans. To enquire further about the University’s nondiscrimination and affirmative action policies or to request a reasonable accommodation for a disability in the application process, please contact the following individual who has been designated as the University’s Title IX/ADA/Section 504 Coordinator: Director, Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, 201 South Presidents Circle, Rm. 135, Salt Lake City, UT 84112, (801) 581-8365, email: oeo@utah.edu Rm 135, (801) 581-8365.