The Social Soup

Real Food, Real Change: Developing A Vision for Sustainable Food Justice

Anim Steel is passionate about building a better food system. He is the director and founder of the Real Food Generation, which was instrumental in creating the Real Food Challenge that will bring local, sustainable, and fair food to universities nationwide by 2020. Steel is also the former director of national programs at the Food Project in Boston, MA.

Wednesday, Nov. 11, 2015 @ 11:30 AM-1 PM
Gould Auditorium at Marriott Library

The Social Soup is a opportunity to converse over a shared meal on social, economic, and environmental issues surrounding food.

Free vegetarian lunch made with local ingredients

RSVP to this free event at Events@CSBS.utah.edu with subject line: Social Soup
For more information visit: https://sustainableutah.wordpress.com/2015/10/23/social-soup/