Join us for an evening with civil rights legend Joan Trumpauer Mulholland and a special screening of the award-winning film, “An Ordinary Hero.” The screening will be followed by a discussion and Q&A with both Ms. Mulholland and her son, award-winning filmmaker and author Loki Mulholland.

By the time she was 23 years old, Joan Trumpauer Mulholland—a Freedom Rider, a participant in the Jackson Woolworth’s sit-in, the March on Washington, the Meredith March, and the Selma to Montgomery March—had participated in over 50 sit-ins and demonstrations. For her actions and allyship, this White southern woman was disowned by her family, attacked, shot at, cursed at, put on death row, and sought by the KKK for execution. She has crossed paths with some of the biggest names in the Civil Rights Movement, including Martin Luther King, Jr., Medgar Evers, Fannie Lou Hamer, John Lewis, Diane Nash, and Julian Bond. In 2015, at age 74, she was awarded the National Civil Rights Museum Freedom Award. She has also received the Delta Sigma Theta, Inc.’s Annual Award of Honor and the Anti-Defamation League Annual Heroes Against Hate Award.

This event is free and open to the public
Direct inquiries to: irene.ota@socwk.utah.edu