College of Social Work

What's Happening at the U.S. Border?

Tuesday, July 10, 2018
12:30 pm – 2:30 pm
Room 155-B

Nearly 2,000 immigrant children were separated from parents during six weeks in April and May, according to the Department of Homeland Security. Join in a conversation about why this policy is in place and the possible impact on families, children, and society.

Guest speakers:

- Alonso R. Reyna Rivarola, Director of the University of Utah Dream Center
- Gloria Cardenas, Immigration Attorney and Founder of Familia America, LLC

Open dialogue will be facilitated by members of the College of Social Work's Diversity and Social Justice Committee.

This event is free and open to the public.
